v.

BERLIN SCHOOL BOARD
BERLIN, NEW HAMPSHIRE

CASE NO. A-0431:2

DECISION NO. 84-86

MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

On January 12, 1984, PELRB entered into a unanimous decision ordering that the complainant, Ronald Plaisance be made whole to the period of proper termination which was September 28, 1982.

The School Board has complied with PELRB Order No. 84-03; Mr. Plaisance has has been made whole and a check has been issued and cashed by the Complainant.

On August 23, 1984, Complainant filed a motion for reconsideration asking for reinstatement and award of all costs incurred.

PELRB finds that all evidence was presented at the original hearing, order issued and complied with by the School Board, and further that the motion for reconsideration was untimely, therefore,

PELRB ORDERS that the motion for reconsideration be, and hereby is, denied and case closed.
